

1. By the end of chapter 24 in The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, Huck was feeling _____ about the actions of the Duke and the Dauphin.

relieved

None of these answers are correct

ashamed confident

2. In chapter 24 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, the Duke and the Dauphin were hoping to perform what comedy act for the townspeople?

Richard III

Hamlet's Soliloquy

The Royal Nonesuch

Romeo and Juliet

3. In chapter 24 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, who do the Dauphin and Huck Finn run into as they canoe toward the steamboat?

None of these answers are correct

A young and talkative country boy

A man from town who was skeptical of Huck and the Dauphin

Mr. Peter Wilks' two English brothers

4. In chapter 24 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, after Huck and the Dauphin catch the steamboat into town, what happens?

Huck and the Dauphin find this town has not yet heard of their scam, The Royal Nonesuch. They decide to continue on with their plan for the show.

The Dauphin deceives Huck and decides to let this town know that they have found a runaway slave they wish to sell.

Huck and the Dauphin find this town already has heard about The Royal Nonesuch, so they leave quickly.

The Dauphin pretends to be Harvey Wilks, an English brother of Peter Wilks who passed away the night before.

5. In chapter 24 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, what happens when Jim, the runaway slave, confesses his discomfort at being tied up while the others go into town?

The Duke and the Dauphin decide it is finally time to sell Jim.

The Duke shows sympathy and devises a costume for Jim that will allow him to be free of chains.

The Duke and the Dauphin laugh at Jim.

Huckleberry Finn tells Jim to keep quiet and not make any trouble .

1. In the beginning of chapter 25 in Mark Twain's The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, the duke and the dauphin are impersonating Harvey and William, the long-lost brothers of the late Peter Wilks. When they arrive at the Wilks home, which relative, or relatives, of Peter's awaits them?

Peter's two sons

Peter's sister

Peter's wife

Peter's three daughters

2. As a way to get the townspeople to trust them more in chapter 25 of Mark Twain's The Adventure of Huckleberry Finn, the duke and the dauphin decide to do what with the portion of the money in which Peter Wilks left his brothers in his will?

Donate it to charity

Give all of it to Peter's three daughters

Burn it

Buy a horse

3. The duke and the dauphin are successfully impersonating Harvey and William, the long-lost brothers of the late Peter Wilks, in chapter 25 of Mark Twain's The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn. Although they seem to have everyone fooled, who is the one man who sees through their lies?

The doctor

The baker

The streetsweeper

The reverend

4. In chapter 25 of Mark Twain's The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, the duke and the dauphin are impersonating the long-lost brothers of the recently deceased Peter Wilks. Peter has left a total of six thousand dollars in gold for his daughters and brothers to split. What do the duke and the dauphin do when they count the money and find it is short four hundred and fifteen dollars?

Scream and cry

Threaten a lawsuit

Make up the difference with money earned in their last con

Accuse the daughters of stealing all the money

5. Dr. Robinson is the only person in town who sees through the duke and the dauphin's con in chapter 25 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn by Mark Twain. When he begs Mary Jane, the eldest of Peter Wilks's daughters, to send the two con artists away without any of the money Peter left in his will, how does she respond?

She laughs at the doctor.

She feeds the doctor dinner.

She sends the duke and the dauphin away.

She angrily gives all of the money to the dauphin to invest.

1. In chapter 26 of "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn", what kind of trouble does Huck get into while talking with Joanna ('Harelip')?

Huck admits that the brothers are frauds.

Huck gets caught stealing food in the kitchen.

Huck reveals where the money is hidden.

Huck can't remember parts of his story.

2. In chapter 26 of "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn", what does Huck decide after talking with the sisters in the kitchen?

Huck decides to steal the money and run.

Huck decides he needs to practice his story more.

Huck decides to steal the money and hide it for the sisters.

Huck decides to run away.

3. In chapter 26 of "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn", what does Huck do when the King and the Duke leave their room?

Huck goes out the window and runs away.

Huck tells the sisters where the money is hidden.

Huck stays in his hiding place until the next morning.

Huck takes the money from under the mattress and hides it in his cubby.

4. In chapter 26 of "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn", what do Mary Jane and Susan do when they walk in the kitchen?

They ask Huck to come and join them at the table.

They make Joanna apologize for accusing Huck of lying.

They make Huck spill the truth about the brothers.

They prod Huck to tell them the truth.

5. In chapter 26 of "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn", where does Huck hide while eavesdropping on the Duke and the King?

Behind the curtains.

In his cubby.

Under the bed.

In the closet.

1. In chapter 27 of "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn", why does the King want to leave as soon as possible?

He wants to get out of town before getting caught.

He needs to get back to his congregation in England.

He isn't feeling too well and needs a doctor.

He needs to catch the next boat to England.

2. In chapter 27 of "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn", who does Huck blame when being questioned about being in the King's room?

The Duke.

The sisters.

The slaves.

The doctor.

3. In chapter 27 of "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn", what happens to the slave family?

They are freed.

They are sold with the house.

They are sent North.

They are separated.

4. In chapter 27 of "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn", what does the undertaker say he found in the cellar with the dog?

A snake.

A thief.

A rat.

Nothing, the dog was just barking.

5. In chapter 27 of "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn", where does Huck hide the money?

In Peter Wilks' coffin.

In Mary Jane's room.

In his cubby.

In the kitchen.

1. According to Chapter 28 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, where has Huckleberry put the bag of money?

under Mary Jane's bed

on a train

none of the above

in the basement

2. Why is Mary Jane Wilks crying at the beginning of Chapter 28 in The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn?

Her uncle did not leave her any money.

She has a horrible toothache.

Her sisters have hurt her feelings.

She is heartbroken because a sale has forced apart a slave mother and her children.

3. In Chapter 28 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, what is Mary Jane Wilks's initial reaction when she hears about the impostors ?

She is afraid they will murder her.

She wants them hung.

She wants to see them tarred and feathered.

She wants them to be forgiven.

4. As she says good-bye to Huck Finn in Chapter 28 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, what does Mary Jane say she will do for him?

none of the above

give him some money

include him in her prayers

marry him

5. Who arrives on a steamboat at the end of Chapter 28 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn?

none of the above

Mary Jane

a slave woman

Jim

1. In Chapter 29 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, who meets Huck and Jim at the raft after Huck escapes the town mob?

The king and the duke.

Harvey and William.

The lawyer and doctor.

Mary Jane Wilks.

2. In Chapter 29 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, what does the lawyer suggest they do to determine the truth about the tattoo?

Put all four men on trial.

Flip a coin.

Ask the sisters for their input.

Dig up Peter's body.

3. In Chapter 29 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, why is William unable to sign his name to prove his identity?

He has a broken arm.

He is mute and doesn't understand.

He does not know how to write.

Harvey always signs for him.

4. In Chapter 29 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, who shows up at the auction and surprises everyone?

The slaves sold off days before

Tom Sawyer

Mary Jane Wilks

Harvey and William Wilks

5. In Chapter 29 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, what marking does Harvey claim is on his late brother Peter?

A birthmark.

An arrow tattoo.

Peter's initials.

A surgical scar.

1. In chapter 30 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, what do the Duke and the Dauphin blame each other for?

They blame each other for stealing and hiding the gold in Peter Wilks' coffin.

They do not blame each other for anything.

They blame each other for causing so much trouble with The Royal Nonesuch.

They blame each other for Huck and Jim trying to escape them.

2. How do the Duke and the Dauphin take Huck's explanation of why they ran away with the raft in chapter 30 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn?

The Duke is somewhat understanding, but the Dauphin is still angry.

They do not buy it and attempt to drown Huck.

The Dauphin is somewhat understanding, but the Duke is still angry.

They believe everything they say and apologize for being angry.

3. In chapter 30 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, what was the reason for Huck and Jim heading down the river by themselves?

The Duke and the Dauphin got angry with Huck and Jim and told them to leave without them; they would find another way downriver.

Huck and Jim were tired of the Duke and the Dauphin and all their trouble. They made an attempt at escape.

The Duke and the Dauphin decided that they would stay in town pretending to be Peter Wilks' brothers.

None of these answers are correct.

4. After the big fight between the Duke and the Dauphin in chapter 30 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, what happens?

The Duke and the Dauphin are at a standstill and decided to take this issue up again after some sleep.

None of these answers are correct.

The Duke and the Dauphin get drunk together and make up.

The Duke and the Dauphin decide to get rid of Huck and Jim and take over the raft themselves.

5. In chapter 30 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn , the Dauphin is _____ when he catches up to Huck and Jim on the raft.

Careful

Relieved

A little disappointed

Furious