

1. In chapter 8 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, how does Huck discover he is not alone on the island?

He finds the ashes of a still-warm campfire.

He sees Pap pacing through the trees.

The canoe and all his traps are missing.

Tom Sawyer and his gang have carved their initials into some of the trees.

2. How does Huck get his breakfast the first morning he is on the island in chapter 8 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn?

He gets no breakfast because the townspeople are on the ferry, and he doesn't want to reveal himself.

He manages to find some wild strawberries to eat.

He grabs a loaf of bread that the people are floating to try and find his body.

He catches a baby bird in his net.

3. In chapter 8 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, how did Jim come to end up on the island?

He was looking for Huck's body and he got lost.

He is afraid to leave because he saw a snake in the woods.

He ran away from Miss Watson.

He fell off a passing ferry boat.

4. What does Jim conclude when they are talking about money in chapter 8 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn?

That he may never be rich, but at least he's happy.

That he owns something very valuable: himself.

That he will have to return to his owner.

That Huck can help him seek his fortune in New Orleans.

5. In chapter 8 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, what startles Huck from his sleep the first morning on Jackson's Island?

A loud BOOM from a cannon.

Birds landing near his sleeping place.

The rain falling through the leaves and hitting his face.

His father, kicking him awake after a night of drinking.

1. Why does Huck have to take the risk of paddling in the daytime in Chapter 9 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn?

Because Jim is black, and would attract more interest if seen from afar.

Because no one is looking for Huck, but everyone is looking for Jim.

Because Jim is wanted for murder, and Huck is only missing.

Because Jim can't paddle very well.

2. In Chapter 9 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, what do Jim and Huck find in the floating house?

All of these answers are correct

Women's clothing

A dead body

Fishing line and knives

3. What warning does Jim give Huck when Huck is reluctant to move their things into the cavern in Chapter 9 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn?

It is going to rain.

Where they are, they could be seen from shore.

They will be caught if they don't hurry.

The slave traders from New Orleans will be searching the river.

4. Why can't Huck and Jim go after the raft that floats by their island in Chapter 9 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn?

It is too dark, and they are afraid they will lose their way.

It is on the Missouri side of the river, and therefore visible from town.

It is inhabited by a nasty-looking dog.

It is broad daylight, and they can't risk being seen.

5. In Chapter 9 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, what happens to the river when it starts raining?

It is filled with catfish, and the two can feast.

The bodies that the townspeople had been searching for reappear in the river.

It becomes wild and choppy, and they are trapped on the island.

It gets higher and higher until it covers most of the island in three or four feet of water.

1. In Chapter 10 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, why does Jim think bad luck is coming?

Everything has been too smooth and it makes him nervous.

Huck touched a snake skin with his bare hands.

They have money that doesn't belong to them.

The dead man in the cabin was found face-up.

2. In Chapter 10 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, what is remarkable about the catfish Huck and Jim catch?

It is more than six feet long.

It weighs more than 200 pounds.

In its stomach, they find a ball containing a spool.

All of these answers are correct.

3. In Chapter 10 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, Huck's actions cause what to happen to Jim?

Jim chokes on a piece of bone in the catfish Huck cooked.

Jim is nearly shot by Pap Finn for drinking his whiskey, which Huck actually stole.

Jim almost drowns in the flood going after the boat Huck didn't tie down.

Jim is bit by the mate of the dead rattlesnake Huck put on Jim's blanket.

4. How does Huck disguise himself for the trip into town in Chapter 10 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn?

He finds a large hat and some glasses.

He uses mud to darken his face and hands.

He dresses as a girl in an old calico dress.

He cuts off his hair and shaves his beard.

5. What remedies for snakebite does Jim use in Chapter 10 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn?

Prayer and the root of a plant Jim finds in the woods.

Gunpowder and river water.

Saltpeter and ale.

Whiskey and snake meat.

1. What mistake does Huck make while speaking to the Mrs. Judith Loftus in Chapter 11 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn?

He tells the woman he is lost and alone.

He says his name is Mary instead of Sarah.

He tells the woman he is running away.

He calls the town Goshen instead of St. Petersburg.

2. In Chapter 11 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, what do Jim and Huck do when they learn that Jackson's Island will be searched?

They argue about leaving until it is too late and the men arrive.

They decide to hide in the cavern until the men leave.

They decide to stay and tell the truth so they won't be harmed.

They quickly load up their raft and float down river.

3. In Chapter 11 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, what disturbing news does Huck learn when he visits a stranger's house?

That Jim is wanted for Huck's murder.

That people will be searching Jackson's Island tonight.

All of these are true.

That Pap is wanted for Huck's murder.

4. In Chapter 11 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, what gives Huck away as a boy?

All of these are correct

The way he throws the iron bar at the rat.

The way he threads a needle.

The way he catches the iron bar in his lap.

5. What story does the Mrs. Loftus, the woman Huck is trying to get information from, finally believe in Chapter 11 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn?

That Huck's mother is sick and he needs to find his uncle.

That he is a ghost and means her no harm.

That he is a farm hand who has run away from a mean farmer.

That he is Huckleberry Finn, and he has not been murdered

1. What does Huck want to do when he realizes the men on the boat are planning to commit murder in Chapter 12 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn?

He tells Jim they should run away at once.

He wants to confront the men and save Jim Turner.

He wants to watch and see what happens.

He wants to go and get the sheriff.

2. At the end of Chapter 12 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, what is the situation Huck and Jim find themselves in?

Their raft has floated away.

The men have discovered them and taken them prisoner.

They get into an argument about whether to go after the men themselves, or go for help.

The sheriff arrests Jim for murder.

3. Which of these things do Huck and Jim do to pass the time as they float down the river at night in Chapter 12 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn?

Swim

All of these choices are correct

Catch fish

Look at the stars

4. In Chapter 12 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, how does Huck convince Jim to tie up to the wrecked steamboat?

He tells Jim that Tom Sawyer would have gone on board, and that they may find something useful there.

He teases Jim and calls him a chicken.

He says that his Pap would have let him go.

He tells Jim that there may be people on board who know more about the search for Pap.

5. In Chapter 12 of The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, why do Huck and Jim rush off the island?

The woman and her husband told Huck that they are having a Sunday school picnic there on Saturday afternoon.

They know the river is in flood stage, and the water will soon cover Jackson's Island.

Huck learns in town that men will be searching the island for Jim that very night.

Professional slave capturers are coming to look for Jim, and they will bring dogs to track him.